

Information sheet 2024-2025
Erasmus School of Philosophy
Erasmus University Rotterdam

Student Nominations

Please send your nominations to the International Officer at the Erasmus School of Philosophy, via internationaloffice@esphil.eur.nl. Make sure to include the student's full name, e-mail address, programme, year of enrollment, and exchange period.

Please note that there is one deadline for all exchange periods

Deadlines

Fall (September – February), Spring (February – July) and Whole Year nominations: April 30th

Courses for incoming exchange students

Incoming bachelor exchange students may choose courses from our English BA Philosophy of a Specific Discipline programme (except for the block called Philosophy of an EUR-discipline). Please find the courses available for bachelor exchange students described here: <https://www.eur.nl/en/esphil/education/international-office/courses-international-students>

Incoming master exchange students are allowed to choose courses from our MA Philosophy. The courses offered are described here: <https://www.eur.nl/en/esphil/master/philosophy/programme-overview>

Practical matters

Are you curious about what it's like to be an incoming exchange student at our university? Please find all the practical information on this page: <https://www.eur.nl/en/education/exchange/come-rotterdam-exchange>

Our language requirements can be found here: <https://www.eur.nl/en/esphil/english-language-requirements-incoming-exchange-students>

Introduction days

At the beginning of each academic year, our university organizes an introduction week for new students, called the Eurekaweek. In due time you can read more about the Eurekaweek on this page: <https://www.eur.nl/en/education/study-rotterdam/eurekaweek>

Every semester, ESN Rotterdam organizes greatly appreciated introduction days for international students. Join them and they may be the most important days of your stay in Rotterdam! In due time you can read more about the ESN days on this page: <https://esn-rotterdam.nl/get-started/introduction-days/>